

KEVIN L. BOYCE
OHIO TREASURER OF STATE

A Call to Action for Financial Literacy

A Free Financial Education Train-the-Trainer

Learn the fundamentals of personal finance education

Find out about free resources available to you

Develop a plan to provide financial education in your community

Dayton - Aug. 31

Wesley Community Center
3730 Delphos Avenue

Columbus - Sept. 14

Ohio State Highway Patrol Academy
740 E 17th Avenue

Toledo - Sept. 28

Collingwood Presbyterian Church
2108 Collingwood Blvd.

Canton - Oct. 1

Stark Community Foundation,
Foundations Centre Community Room
400 Market Ave. North

Cincinnati - Oct. 5

Jewish Family Service
Jewish Foundation of Cincinnati Campus
8487 Ridge Rd.

Youngstown - Oct. 7

Main Public Library
305 Wick Avenue

Cleveland - Oct. 12

Hope Lutheran Church
2222 North Taylor Road

Athens - Oct. 19

Building 20, The Ridges, Room 351

Chillicothe - Oct. 19

via video conference, location TBA

Zanesville - Oct. 19

via video conference

Muskingum Valley Educational Service
Center, 205 N Seventh Street

Agenda

10-10:30 a.m.	Welcome and introductions
10:30-11:10 a.m.	Money Management
11:10-11:50 a.m.	Understanding Credit and Debt
11:50-12:30 p.m.	Financial Education for Different Ages
12:30-1:30 p.m.	Lunch (available for purchase or brown bag)
1:30-2:00 p.m.	Effective Presentation Techniques for Financial Education
2:00-2:50 p.m.	Bringing Financial Education into Your Organization
2:50-3:40 p.m.	Financial Education in Your Community
3:40-3:55 p.m.	Questions and Evaluations
3:55-4 p.m.	Closing

REGISTRATION AND TRAINING ARE FREE

Register online at www.ohiotreasurer.gov

Or call 1(800) 228-1102

A Call to Action for Financial Literacy is supported by the Ohio Council of Churches, Ohio Jewish Communities, Catholic Conference of Ohio, Third Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church and Ohio Community Development Corporations Association.

A Call to Action

Governor's Office of Faith-Based and Community Initiatives

A Call to Action for Financial Literacy is offered in collaboration with the Governor's Office of Faith-Based and Community Initiatives' A Call to Action program.

For more information contact Clarissa Kornell at (614) 359-6858 or clarissa.kornell@tos.ohio.gov.