Organizations considering or developing an IDA Program will benefit from this workshop. Training will use a combination of small group exercises and facilitated discussions to introduce individuals to the building blocks of running an IDA Program. Key topics will include the theory of IDAs, the elements of designing an IDA program, developing partnerships, funding sources, assessing community needs and integrating IDAs into the structure of your organization.

Agenda:

- IDAs as a Strategy for Asset Building: Why and How do IDAs Work
- The Building Blocks of Program Design
- Assessing your Community's Needs: Defining your Target Population
- Funding Resources and Opportunities Explained
- Integration of IDAs into Other Agency Programs
- IDA Program Management

Trainer: Jerolyn Barbee, Former Assets Ohio Program Manager
